

Find someone who...

(Intermediate: Present Tense "Are you" + "Do you"/ Simple Past Tense)

FOR GROUPS IN CLASS

1. Check if you understand all words, look words up if needed.
2. Write down all questions (see example 1.)
3. Then ask different partners questions. If they answer "no", ask another question.
If they still answer "no," find another partner.
4. If they answer "yes," write down their name (spell, if needed.)
5. Ask follow-up questions (Why?) and take notes:
6. The first person with answers for all questions wins!

VARIATIONS: Ask one person multiple questions.

Ask multiple people the same questions.

Count "no" answers, but add follow up questions: Why not?

FOR OUTSIDE OF CLASS PRACTICE

Ask friends or family members questions and take notes.

Then write a paragraph about them:
Example: " Maria has two children, their names are Max and Claudia. Maria speaks Spanish, a little French and a little English. She is a good cook. Her best dish is chicken soup."
