Find someone who…

(Advanced: Present/Past Tense, Present Perfect)

FOR GROUPS IN CLASS
1. Check if you understand all words, looks up words if needed.
2. Write down all questions (see example 1.)
3. Then ask different partners questions. If they answer "no", ask another question.
   If they still answer "no,' find another partner.
4. If they answer "yes," write down their name (spell, if needed.)
5. Ask follow-up questions (Why?) and take notes:
6. The first person with answers for all questions wins!

VARIATIONS: Ask one person multiple questions.
Ask multiple people the same questions.
Count "no" answers, but add follow up questions: Why not?

FOR OUTSIDE OF CLASS PRACTICE
Ask friends or family members questions and take notes.

Then write a paragraph about them:
Example: My sister loves the movie Titanic, she has seen it 5 times. In her free time she likes to swim and to go to the movies. She likes going to Central Park, especially to go iceskating in the winter. ...

QUESTION - Find someone who...	PARTNER'S NAME	NOTES (ask follow up questions)
1. ...is a good cook. Question: Are you a good cook?	Andrea	How often do you cook? What is your specialty? almost every day / Chicken soup
2. …has an unusual hobby. Q:		What do you like to do in your free time?
3. …has seen the movie Titanic more than once. Q:
4. knows where he/she was when Obama was elected. Q:
5. …has been to Mexico. Q:
6.…took the subway yesterday. Q:
7. …has more sisters than brothers. Q:
8. …is afraid of mice. Q:
9. …can dance salsa. Q:
10. …went to Central Park last week. Q:
11. Bonus question: (YOUR question here) Q:		